CSUSB encourages the involvement, collaboration, and partnership of academic researchers and educators with public and private sector grants, contracts, ventures, and entrepreneurial activities. However, such involvements create a risk of conflict between the private interests of individuals, the companies with which they are involved, and the public interest. CSUSB has adopted policies that regulate potential conflicts of interest among faculty and staff members employed on grants and contracts as required by federal, state, CSU, and CSUSB laws and policies. If a real or potential conflict is disclosed, it will be confidentially reviewed and a determination made whether the conflict requires the development of a resolution plan to address the conflicts.

What do the regulations require you to do?
- Disclose SIGNIFICANT financial interests in two kinds of entities
  - The entity providing the funding for the project.
  - An entity that will benefit from the outcome of the project.

What is a SIGNIFICANT financial interest?
- Salary, payments, or loans by any of the above entities outside the parameters of the award.
- Interests in the above business enterprises more than $10,000 or 5% ownership interest.
- Intellectual property rights.

Who does this disclosure cover?
- The Principal Investigator/Project Director.
- Co-Principal Investigators/Co-Project Directors.
- Any other person who is responsible for the design, conduct, or reporting of the sponsored project.
- The spouse/domestic partner of each of the above.
- Dependent children of the above.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grant Title:</th>
<th>CSUSB Grant #:</th>
<th>CSUSB Project Director(s):</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

The undersigned agrees/certifies that he/she has read and understands the above requirements and that the information provided is accurate and current. The undersigned agrees to update this disclosure annually, or as new reportable interests occur, and to comply with any conditions or restrictions imposed by CSUSB to manage, reduce, or eliminate actual or potential conflict of interests, or forfeit the award.

Investigator Certification (check appropriate boxes):

- [ ] I, (and/or my family) have no reportable interests as described above.
- [ ] I, (and/or my family) have reportable interests, which have been disclosed (attached).

Signed: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________

Name (print): ________________________________________________________